NASA selects 345 innovative small business projects

NASA has selected 345 research proposals for negotiation of Phase I contract awards for NASA's 1998 Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) Program. The combined award total is expected to be approximately $24 million. SBIR goals are to stimulate technological innovation, increase the use of small business in meeting federal research and development needs, and increase private-sector commercialization of results of federally funded research.
